INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE, STRATEGIES AND RESTRICTIONS

Investment Objective

The primary investment objectives of the Sub-Fund are to preserve capital and achieve total returns. The Sub-Fund seeks to achieve these objectives by investing primarily in mutual funds and exchange traded funds ("ETFs").

The Investment Manager is responsible for complying with the Investment Objective and Strategies as set out herein.

Strategies

This Sub-Fund seeks positive absolute returns and income by mainly investing in funds that invest mainly in debt instruments and in securities representing debt and stock indices.

The Sub-Fund may invest a minimum of 50% and a maximum of 70% (at time of purchase) of its assets in (i) shares of funds that invest mainly in debt instruments and (ii) in securities representing debt indices.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Fund may invest a minimum of 30% and a maximum of 50% (at time of purchase) of its assets, in (i) shares of funds that invest mainly in capitalization instruments and (ii) in securities representing stock indices.

Additionally, the Sub-Fund may invest a maximum of 15% of its assets, in shares of national or foreign funds that invest directly or indirectly in real estate assets, private equity, private debt, infrastructure, risk capital (venture capital) or natural resources.

For the purposes of fulfilling its investment purpose, the instruments denominated in United States Dollars must represent at least 60% of the assets of the Sub-Fund at the time of purchase.

The Sub-Fund may invest up to 30% in Non-USD denominated securities. The currency exposure will not be hedged.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Fund may hold up to 100% of its assets in cash or cash equivalent securities such as (but not limited to) cash deposits, money market funds and money market instruments.

RISK FACTORS AND SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

Whilst it is the intention of the Investment Manager to implement strategies set forth herein which are designed to minimise potential losses and maximize Sub-Fund performance, there can be no assurance that these strategies will be successful. It is possible that an investor may lose a substantial proportion or all of its investment in the Sub-Fund. As a result, each investor should carefully consider whether it can afford to bear the risks of investing in the Sub-Fund.

The Fund relies on each investor to obtain independent, qualified investment and tax advice before purchasing Shares in the Sub-Fund.

Depending on the circumstances of each subscription, a detailed verification might not be required where:

- (b) the prospective Subscriber is acting in the course of a business in relation to which a regulatory authority exercises regulatory functions and which is in a country assessed by the Fund as having a low degree of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (Revised) of the Cayman Islands (each a "Low Risk Country") or is a majority-owned subsidiary of such an applicant; or Alternatively, if the subscription payment is remitted from an account (or joint account) held in the applicant's name at a bank in the Cayman Islands or a bank regulated in a Low Risk Country, a detailed verification might not be required at the time of subscription. In this situation the Fund may require evidence identifying the branch or office of the bank from which the monies have been transferred, verify that the account is in the name of the applicant and retain a written record of such details. However, a detailed verification will need to be carried out prior to any redemption.

The Administrator reserves the right to request such information as it deems necessary in regard to a prospective Subscriber. In the event of delay or failure by the prospective Subscriber to produce any information required for verification purposes, the Administrator will refuse to accept the application and, if so, any consideration received will be returned without interest to the account from which the consideration was originally received.

If any person who is resident in the Cayman Islands (including the Administrator) has a suspicion that a payment to the Sub-Fund (by way of subscription or otherwise) contains the proceeds of criminal conduct that person is required to report such suspicion pursuant to the Proceeds of Crime Act (Revised).

By subscribing, prospective Subscribers consent to the disclosure by the Fund and the Administrator of any information about them to regulators and others upon request in connection with money laundering and similar matters both in the Cayman Islands and in other jurisdictions.
